

Call for Abstracts

2012 WRCASN Conference

Winds of Change: Diversity and Divergence

February 22 - 24, 2012

Coast Lethbridge Hotel and Conference Centre
Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada

The Lethbridge NESA BN Programs are pleased to host the 2012 WRCASN Conference at the Coast Lethbridge Hotel, Lethbridge, Alberta.

We invite you to submit abstracts for a 25 minute oral presentation, and/or a poster. Our question is: What are the winds of change blowing the way of nursing education?

Themes may include:

- Curriculum Innovation
- Teaching/Learning Approaches
- Clinical Teaching
- Educational Leadership
- Educational Theory & Philosophy
- Nursing Education Research

We especially encourage student submissions.

Western Region Canadian
Association of Schools of Nursing
Association canadienne des écoles
de sciences infirmières, Région de l'ouest

Guidelines for Submission

Submissions can be submitted online at via the WNRCSN 2012 Conference website. Follow the link to Abstract Submission.

Abstracts will be accepted until October 30, 2011. Authors of abstracts will be notified by November 30, 2011, following a blind review.

Abstracts should be 250 words or less, 12 point font, in Microsoft Word or PDF. Please review the online instructions carefully. Multiple submissions will be accepted but are subject to room availability.

Electronic versions of presentations/posters will become part of a WRCASN community of practice and will be publically available to members following the conference.

Please forward enquiries to:

Mark Pijl Zieber RN, PhD(c)
University of Lethbridge

m.pijlzieber@uleth.ca

403.329.2659