

Institute for Child and Youth Studies

3RD ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

The Intersections of Youths and Museums: How We Teach the Past

CALL FOR PAPERS

We would like to invite community members, students, and professionals to present their work on the intersections of youth, children, and museums.

There are two sessions:

Student Paper Session: Only students. Best paper gets a $200.00 prize

General Paper Session: All submissions welcome.

Topics of interest may include: Museums, Archaeology, Anthropology, Exhibits, Objects, Museum Programming, Children & Youths Programming in Museums, Exhibits Designed for Youths and Children and more! We are very flexible for submissions.

REQUIREMENTS:

- 10 minute paper (with 5 minutes for questions)
- On any topic pertaining to intersections between youths, children, museums, how the past is being taught through museum structures
- Specify which session you are applying to

SUBMIT YOUR MAX. 250 WORD ABSTRACT
BY MARCH 15TH FOR CONSIDERATION

QUESTIONS? CONTACT
perry@uleth.ca

JOIN US AT THE GALT MUSEUM
502-1 STREET SOUTH, LETHBRIDGE

MONDAY APRIL 8TH
9 AM TO 5 PM

REGISTER AT:
HTTP://BIT.LY/2S8NRG2

Boys & Girls Club of Lethbridge & District