Calendar Description

An interdisciplinary analysis of the evolution of modern educational theory and practice as it relates to a variety of educational settings over time.

Course Description

This course is fully online (Moodle). From the vantage point of organizational theory, we will deepen and broaden our understanding of different lenses to interpret and make sense of values, attitudes, behaviours and practices within school settings. For leadership studies, organizational theory is considered a foundational underpinning to understand and interpret theory and practice. When we set these in an historical framework, we can begin to understand the foundations of many of the current practices in educational leadership.

Topics include:

- The importance of leadership and management for education (Chapter 1)
- Models of educational leadership and management (Chapter 2)

John Dewey and Progressivism

- Subjective models (Chapter 6)

Scientific Management Era – Taylor-made man

Bureaucratic Systems

- Formal models (Chapter 3)
- Political models Chapter 5)

Human Relations Movement

- Collegial Models (Chapter 4)
- Ambiguity models (Chapter 7)

Neoliberal values and Accountability

Modern Era

- Cultural models (Chapter 8)

Required Reading

Theories of educational leadership and management. Tony Bush (2011). 4th edition. Sage Publishers.
ISBN: 978-1-84860-191-8 (pbk.)

Schedule

The Moodle site will open on April 1 and close on June 22. Students are expected to read the first two topics (above) independently before April 10. You must complete written responses for 3 of the 6 topics based on your own interest and choice.

Chapter 1 and 2 Reading	Due: April 10
Dewey and Progressivism	Due: April 24
Scientific Management	Due: May 1
Bureaucratic Systems	Due: May 8
Human Relations Movement	Due: May 22
Neoliberal Values and Accountability	Due: June 5
Modern Era	Due: June 12

Details for all assignments, and precise dates for each expectation, are on both the Moodle site and the Course Schedule. Students should submit their responses to both the Forum and Assignments postings pages. Responses to forums should be in the 400-word range. You are required to respond to at least one other student's posting on the forum.

Your Major assignment (Historical Scene Investigation: Educational Leadership) is to take an artifact from your school experience and discover the historical foundation for its existence. (This may be a particular policy, the School Act, why we have two different school systems, etc.) As well, you must evaluate its validity and effectiveness for the contemporary world. Due: June 22, 2016

If extenuating circumstances prevent your timely submission of an assignment, please contact me so we can make an alternative arrangement.

Evaluation

Postings are worth 15% each (3X15=45%) and the response to another student is worth (1X15=15%). The Major assignment is worth 40%. For all assignments, clarity, cohesion, insight, organization of argumentation, staying within word boundaries, grammar, and APA 6th (for the last assignment or postings when necessary) are all decisive factors in assessment.

All components within Graduate Studies & Research in Education programs that use a percentage procedure will use the following table for determining the final grade.
