Linking where we are, who we are and how we are through story.

Through story, we can come to deeply know both our physical place and our communal identity. This session will introduce participants to literature that will facilitate the exploration of themes in the Alberta Elementary/Middle School Social Studies Curriculum.

Yawney D. and Fox L. (2013). Sierra and Blue Go to Visit their Cousins. Prairie Rain Publishing.★

Explore this excellent resource for more literature that links directly to the Alberta Social Studies Curriculum: http://www.learnalberta.ca/content/sslc/html/index.html

★ indicates books highlighted in Literature Fair presentation.