Co-operative Education is an option for students in all programs offered by the Faculty of Fine Arts. Students interested in pursuing Co-operative Education are strongly encouraged to meet with an academic advisor in the Faculty of Fine Arts to discuss course sequencing implications if work terms are to be taken in the fall and/or spring terms.

a. Work Terms

To receive the Co-op designation, students must complete all regular degree requirements and a minimum of three work terms:

Fine Arts 3001 - Co-op Work Experience I

 Fine Arts 3006 - Co-op Work Experience VI

Students must be registered through the program for the full period of the work term in which they applied, and once registered are not permitted to withdraw without failure. A grade of 'F' (fail) will be awarded for the term(s) unless extenuating circumstances warrant granting of Withdrawal with Cause ('WC'), in accordance with University of Lethbridge policy (see Part 4 - Academic Regulations, Academic Regulations, p. 64).

Students should contact the Coordinator of Co-operative Education for assistance with the procedure.

b. Transfer of Co-op Work Terms

A maximum of one Co-op work term from another institution with formal Co-operative Education programs shall be eligible for recognition towards the requirement. To be eligible for recognition, the Co-op shall be subject to special assessment by the Co-operative Education Office. An approved Co-op must be registered as a non-academic course on the student's transcript from the sending institution and must have received a passing grade.

7. INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent Study may be taken for credit inside or outside of the student's Fine Arts discipline. A maximum of five Independent Study courses may count for degree credit. Post-Diploma and/or Combined Degrees students may count only three. Independent Study numbers 2990, 3990, and 4990 indicate the level of advancement. Independent Study may be elected as early as the second term or as late as the last, depending upon the capability of the student for undertaking academic work with a minimum of guidance.

Independent Study may take a variety of forms including theoretical studies, studio practice, or a combination of both. Admission to Independent Study is achieved through consent of the instructor, who agrees to guide the Study, and by approval of the Department and the Dean. Enrolment may be for a regular term or during a summer session. Credit for Independent Study is at the discretion of the Department, upon recommendation of the Instructor. Grades are due at the end of the term of registration, as for regular courses.

Since Independent Study is intended to expand a student's program beyond the limits of the regular curriculum, it may not be used to duplicate course offerings.

8. TOPICS COURSES

Topics courses (numbered 1850, 2850, 3850, or 4850) may be offered in a discipline. The subject matter of Topics courses varies with each offering, with different offerings indicated by distinct titles. Students may take more than one offering of a Topics course for credit if the offerings are distinct (i.e. if each offering taken has a different title).

Topics courses are offered on an irregular basis and do not appear in Part 14 - Course Catalogue of the Calendar; Topics courses are listed in the current term timetable. Contact hours for Topics courses may vary according to the nature of the course and will appear in the timetable entry.

Prerequisites/corequisites/recommended background for individual offerings will appear in the timetable entry and will normally specify one or more of the following: level-appropriate courses in the discipline/related disciplines, year of standing, appropriate majors, admission to a University of Lethbridge program, or some other special requirement (e.g. an interview).

9. DEGREE PROGRAMS

a. B.F.A. - Art

The Department of Art offers degrees in Art Studio and Art History/Museum Studies. Within a liberal education context, the programs provide the opportunity for intensive instruction in studio production and in art history and museum studies, and for engagement with theoretical and historical discourses related to contemporary art.

Art Studio courses combine traditional and emerging media, such as drawing, painting, sculpture, computer-based art, audio art, photography, video, printmaking, installation and performance art. Spacious and well-equipped facilities permit students to undertake projects in an environment of expert technical support, creative guidance and critical dialogue. Foundation courses provide an introduction to a diversity of materials and ideas that are expanded upon in upper level courses. Senior students are allocated individual studio spaces facilitating independent art production at an advanced level.

The Art History/Museum Studies program concentrates primarily on nineteenth to twenty-first century European, North American and First Nations Art history. This degree program is unique in Canada with its combination of history, theory and hands-on museum experience at the undergraduate level. Students intern in regional public art galleries and museums and gain valuable, career-specific skills in the context of the University's renowned teaching collection of over 13,000 objects.

The Visiting Speakers in the Arts Program, offered through Art NOW and Architecture and Design NOW, provides extensive exposure to leading practitioners in the field. With several high-profile visitors every week—including artists, critics, historians and curators—students have a unique learning experience, one that illuminates national and international achievement. Course credit is available for attendance in the Visiting Speakers Series in Art 3261 - Art NOW, Art 3262 - Art NOW, Art 3210 - Architecture and Design NOW I, and Art 4210 - Architecture and Design NOW II.

These programs prepare students to become professional artists or art educators, or for careers in gallery and museum work. They provide a solid base for further studies in Art Studio, Art History, Museum Studies, Media Studies, Art Education, Architecture, Design and related disciplines.

For each prospective 'Honours Thesis' candidate, a Supervisory Committee will be established. The Supervisory Committee, approved by the Art Department will consist of the Thesis Supervisor from the Art Department and a minimum of one other member, who may be from outside the Art Department.

c. Initial Approval

1. The prospective student must present a Thesis Proposal to be approved by the Supervisory Committee prior to registration for the course.

3. Subsequent changes to the approved Thesis Proposal must be approved by the Supervisory Committee.
4. The prospective student must submit an unofficial transcript for review by the Supervisory Committee.
5. Admission to the course is achieved through approval of the Supervisory Committee and the Art Department, endorsed by the Dean whose signature indicates that the necessary resources are available for the project.
6. The student must register for the Undergraduate Thesis course by the last day for course Add/Drop for the given fall/spring term or summer session.

The Thesis should be of high quality and made publicly available by the Art Department.

2. Oral Component

The student will be required to make a formal oral presentation demonstrating the ability to articulate clearly the nature of the project undertaken, the research methodology and the results of the project. This component is a demonstration of the student's competence in oral communication and not necessarily an oral defence of the Thesis, unless so specified by the Art Department.

d. B.F.A. - Native American Art

The Bachelor of Fine Arts - Native American Art is offered by the Faculty of Fine Arts. Required courses in the program are offered by the Department of Art and the Department of Native American Studies. Students may choose a major in Art Studio or Art History/Museum Studies, each of which has a Native American Art emphasis. Within a liberal education context, the programs provide the opportunity for intensive instruction in studio production and in art history and museum studies, and for engagement with theoretical and historical discourses related to contemporary art.

Art Studio courses combine traditional and emerging media, such as drawing, painting, sculpture, computer-based art, audio art, photography, video, printmaking, installation and performance art. Spacious and well-equipped facilities permit students to undertake projects in an environment of expert technical support, creative guidance and critical dialogue. Foundation courses provide an introduction to a diversity of materials and ideas that are expanded upon in upper-level courses. Courses focusing on Native American Art are taught from a First Nations' perspective allowing for a deep engagement with First Nations' studio issues. Senior students are allocated individual studio spaces facilitating independent art production at an advanced level.

The Art History/Museum Studies program concentrates primarily on nineteenth to twenty-first century European, North American and First Nations' Art History. This degree program is unique in Canada with its combination of history, theory and hands-on museum experience at the undergraduate level. Students intern in regional public art galleries and museums and gain valuable, career-specific skills in the context of the University's renowned teaching collection of over 13,000 objects. Courses taught from a First Nations' perspective on Native American Art history provide an important component of this degree.

The Visiting Speakers in the Arts Program, offered through Art Now and Architecture and Design NOW, provides extensive exposure to leading practitioners in the field. With several high-profile visitors every week—including artists, critics, historians and curators—students have a unique learning experience, one that illuminates national and international achievement.

These programs prepare students to become professional artists or art educators, or for careers in gallery and museum work. They provide a solid base for further studies in Art Studio, Art History, Museum Studies, Media Studies, Art Education, Architecture, Design and related disciplines.

Sequencing Plan

Sample sequencing plans are created to provide students with an example of how to plan courses for the duration of a program. For suggested sequencing plans see www.uleth.ca/ross/sequencing-plans.

2. Double Major in Digital Audio Arts and Music
Although the Faculty of Fine Arts does not recognize double majors as official student programs leading toward the B.Mus. degree, it will authorize the designation of the double major for all students who, upon graduation, have completed all of the minimum requirements for both the Digital Audio Arts and Music majors.

Completion of a double major in Digital Audio Arts and Music would require a minimum of 51 courses (153.0 credit hours). The Faculty cannot guarantee that course sequencing and timetables will accommodate the double major combination within a minimum number of regular terms of work. While students may intend to pursue two majors, only one major will be recognized on their official program forms and for establishing priority in access to courses. Double major status will only be designated upon application for graduation.

Interested students are encouraged to consult with an academic advisor regarding the double major as early as possible in their academic programs.

3. Studio Audition Procedure

Studio Course instruction is available in piano, voice, strings, guitar, woodwinds, brass, percussion and composition.

Fall Term: Instrumental and vocal auditions for the fall term are held in February and March. Although a live audition is highly preferred, it is possible to submit an audition video to SlideRoom (www.ulethbridge.slideroom.com) by the deadline of June 15.

Spring (January) Term: Instrumental and vocal auditions are held within the last two weeks of November only if space is available. Although a live audition is highly preferred, it is possible to submit an audition video to SlideRoom (www.ulethbridge.slideroom.com) by the deadline of November 15.

Note: Some entrance scholarships are available based on live auditions and completing the appropriate scholarship application form by the deadline (Early entrance - March 1; others - June 1).

Audition dates and more audition information:
www.uleth.ca/finearts/departments/music/studio-audition-requirements

Audition application:
www.uleth.ca/finearts/departments/music/studio-audition-application

Instrumental and vocal auditions must be accompanied unless the piece is written as an unaccompanied solo. Applicants are encouraged to supply the accompanist. If that is not possible, please call 403-329-2495 at least two weeks prior to the scheduled audition.

Students who wish an emphasis in composition must:

- Successfully complete an instrumental or vocal audition at the entry level for Music 2148 - Studio I - (Instrument); and
- Successfully complete a composition audition.

Requests for a specific studio instructor should be made at the time of the audition. Every effort will be made to accommodate the request, but final assignment of instructors rests with the Department of Music.

Late auditions will be granted under extenuating circumstances, but admission to Studio courses is not guaranteed after the audition deadline.

Once enrolled in Studio, students must achieve a minimum grade of 'C' in order to be eligible for the subsequent course in their Studio sequence (Studio II-VIII). Should a grade below 'C' be earned, advancement to the next Studio will be based upon the results of a mandatory audition.

Studio courses may not be repeated for the purposes of grade replacement except in the case where a student has previously earned an 'F' (an audition for re-entry to the Studio sequence is required).

Students who withdraw from a Studio course or have not registered in a Studio course for one or more consecutive terms are required to audition for re-entry to the studio sequence.

Practice facilities are available to Studio course registrants. Detailed information concerning audition requirements and Studio course procedures may be obtained from the Department of Music.

10. ART GALLERY

The University of Lethbridge Art Gallery maintains the Art Collection; organizes on-campus and touring exhibitions for the entire campus and the general public; and provides research access to the collection to the Faculty of Fine Arts. The Collection is one of the most significant in Canada with over 13,000 objects including work from Canada, America, and Europe, as well as media ranging from drawing, printmaking, and painting to photography, sculpture, and installation. The majority of works span the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, but we have earlier periods and continue to grow with twenty-first-century additions.

The Gallery programs are an integral part of the teaching program in the Department of Art. The collection was founded with the goal of providing students with an experience of original works of art on their own terms. Students have incomparable opportunities for research access to works in the collection and to information associated with these works. Students and faculty are able to view individual works on request.

11. UNIVERSITY THEATRES

The Faculty of Fine Arts has four performance spaces in the Centre for the Arts: the University Theatre, Recital Hall/Film Theatre, the David Spinks Theatre, and the Drama Studio. The University Theatre is a 450 seat fully-equipped proscenium theatre, while the Recital Hall/Film Theatre is a smaller venue ideally suited for music concerts, lectures and films. The David Spinks Theatre is a completely equipped black box theatre with flexible seating for approximately 220 and the Drama Studio is a smaller version of the Spinks Theatre.

All four of the performance spaces are prime teaching facilities of the Departments of Drama and Music. Visiting artists complement and support the programs of the Faculty and of the University as a whole.
