

PUBLIC Professor

SERIES

A Spirited Conversation.

The University of Lethbridge is proud to present the PUBLIC Professor Series, a monthly, thought-provoking lecture series that brings a range of experts and researchers from across the arts and sciences to the community for a spirited conversation.

Join University of Lethbridge sociology professor, Dr. Trevor Harrison, as he explores

The Promise and Peril of Populism.

Recent years have seen a swath of political leaders, notably on the right, espousing populist claims to represent the people. Donald Trump is an obvious example, but there are others such as Brazil's Jair Bolsonaro. Alberta's own Jason Kenney likewise makes use of populist appeals. But what is populism? Why does it arise at some historical times and not others? Why does populism attract so many people? What is its promise, its perils, and its future? These are just some of the questions examined in this talk.

In PUBLIC Professor Series spirit, we encourage you to prepare appetizers and pour yourself a beverage of choice.

All who register & attend this talk will be entered into a draw to win a $100 gift card to the Italian Table, our long time partner in the delivery of this series. Must be in attendance to win.

January 28, 2021 | 7 p.m.

This talk will be hosted ONLINE and LIVE. Free. Everyone welcome.
