

My Open House Plan

Make the most of your Virtual Open House by printing and filling in this event planner prior to the event!

Time	Which booth am I going to?	What am I doing at the booth? (live session, just browsing, drop-in Q&A)
10:00
10:15
10:30
10:45
11:00
11:15
11:30
11:45
12:00
12:15
12:30
12:45

Live Session Schedule

Here is a list of the live sessions available during the 2021 Spring Open House from 10:00a.m. - 1:00p.m on March 6th.

Sessions are scheduled in mountain standard time and will be hosted via Zoom.

Drop-in Q&A times will be available anytime outside of the scheduled sessions.

Please note: Scheduled times are subject to change – updated 4:00pm March 4th, 2021

Time	Booth	Session Title	Description
10:00 - 10:15	Home Page	President's Welcome	An Open House kick-off with our President Mike Mahon and Associate Vice President (Students).
10:15 - 10:30	Dhillon School of Business	Dean's Welcome	Find out what being a Dhillon business student is all about, including what we offer that's different from what you'd experience elsewhere. Speaker: Kelly Williams-Whitt, Associate Dean
	Faculty of Arts & Science	Professor Spotlight	Hear from three of our exceptional professors, all of who are recognized for excellence in teaching. Speakers: Dr. Shawn Bubel, Archaeology; Dr. Ute Kothe, Chemistry/Biochemistry; Dr. Harold Jansen, Political Science
	Faculty of Fine Arts	Welcome to Faculty of Fine Arts	Learn about the Faculty of Fine Arts programs, spaces, awards, and opportunities available to you. Speakers: Erin Kennett (Student Success Coordinator) and James Dobbie (Assistant Dean)
	Faculty of Health Sciences	Explore our unique Addictions Counselling Major	The Addictions Counselling major at the University of Lethbridge is the only one of its kind in Canada. The program gives students the skills to guide people through the addictions counselling process. Speaker: Cindy Gaetz, Coordinator
	Ikaisskini & Indigenous Student Center	Coffee with Ikaisskini Student Center Staff	Join Ikaisskini staff for an informal coffee session. Get to know the team and see how you can be apart of a great community of Indigenous people at the uLethhbridge!
10:30 - 10:45	Admissions & Transfer	General Admission Requirements	Highlighting the general admissions requirements for the University of Lethbridge Undergraduate programs. Come talk with an Enrolment Specialist about what you need to study with us!
	Faculty of Education	Greeting and General overview of the Faculty of Education	Faculty of Education 101: Let's Talk About Becoming a Teacher! A Conversation with Faculty, Students and Staff. If you are a Pre-Education student please take this opportunity to join us! We have an excellent panel of faculty, staff, and students to answer your questions and share some tips on "what to know" before coming into the teacher preparation program. Presenters: Danny Balderson, Assistant Dean of Student Program Services; Faculty; Staff; and Students
	Faculty of Fine Arts	Fine Arts Admission Overview	Faculty of Fine Arts has some changes that have occurred this past year for portfolios and auditions. Find out if these changes have impacted your admission process and who you should talk to for more information. Speakers: Erin Kennett (Student Success Coordinator) and James Dobbie (Assistant Dean)

	likaisskini & Indigenous Student Center	likaisskini Student Center Presentation	Join us for a brief presentation on likaisskini Student Centre services, events and other helpful information. Speakers: Lindi Shade, Manager of Indigenous Student Affairs; Jodie Flamand, Indigenous Student Advisor; Charlene Bruised Head-Mountain Horse, Indigenous Student Advisor
	International Recruitment	Admissions and undergrad programs for students from India	Admissions and undergrad programs for students from India (Gill) – Though session is designed for students from India, everyone is welcome. Learn about our programs and living in Canada. Speaker: Gill Adhiraj, Manager of International Recruitment
10:45 - 11:00	Dhillon School of Business	Indigenous Business: certainty & exceptions	Join us for this sample lecture by faculty member Don McIntyre. In the business sector, certainty is essential. Knowing, for sure, how things will happen, when, and why is key for any successful venture. The Indigenous sector is one of the fastest growing markets and demographics in Canada. Job possibilities are huge for those who understand this market. However, the Indigenous sector is based on a set of exceptions to the regular business rules. Understand the challenges and potential of Indigenous business. Speaker: Don McIntyre, Faculty
	Faculty of Arts & Science	Research	uLethbridge is one of Canada's leading research institutions. Our research aims to better the lives of our community, our country, and the world. In this session, you will hear about some of our research and learn how to get involved. Speakers: Dr. Sergio Pellis, Neuroscience; Dr. Carol Williams, Women & Gender Studies; Dr. Bryson Brown, Philosophy
	Faculty of Education	Program Information & the Student Experience	Faculty of Education 101: Let's Talk About Becoming a Teacher! A Conversation with Faculty, Students and Staff. If you are a Pre-Education student please take this opportunity to join us! We have an excellent panel of faculty, staff, and students to answer your questions and share some tips on "what to know" before coming into the teacher preparation program. Presenters: Danny Balderson, Assistant Dean of Student Program Services; Faculty; Staff; and Students
	Faculty of Health Sciences	Join the Rapidly expanding Public Health field	The core of our work in Public Health is to take steps to prevent chronic and infections disease before it occurs. Come be part of this exciting and rapidly expanding field and have a positive influence on your world. Speaker: Dr. Nimesh Patel, Acting Coordinator
	Early Start Experience	Transition to University	If you are worried about the academic or social transition to university, the Early Start Experience is for you! In this enhanced version of the Liberal Education 1500 First Year Experience course, you get to develop the skills you will need to succeed in University, meet a diverse group of fellow first-year students, and earn a full 3-credit course before the Fall semester. Speaker: Shelly Wismath, Dean of School of Liberal Education
	Education Abroad	Study Abroad Opportunities	Learn about all the education abroad opportunities uLethbridge has to offer. Presenter: Education Abroad Coordinator, Gizelle Tiponut.
11:00 - 11:15	Faculty of Fine Arts	Music Spotlight	Whether you are interested in performance, composition, digital audio arts or music education, our classical music programs are designed to meet your specific needs and interests. Music professor Bryn Hughes will be presenting on "Music and the Mind" and be available to answer questions immediately following.
	Housing Services	Live in Residence!	Learn more about what it is like to live on campus.

	Students Services & Supports	Kickstarting your Career with Career Bridge - During and After Your Degree	Find out about what the Career Bridge Centre offers to help you carve out your own path of career development and preparation. Our programs (Career Coaching and Exploration, Co-operative Education, Applied Studies, the MyExperience Transcript and Professional Development Certificates) will provide you with what you need to build competitive applications, gain experience, test-run your degree, start your professional network, and find success during your degree and long after. Have you considered joining the Career Kickstart Cohort (CKC)?
11:15 - 11:30	Dhillon School of Business	DSB Link: The hub for all things experience	Being job-ready is much more than just going to class and getting good grades. DSB Link is a hub of experiential opportunities (events, workshops, case competitions, etc.) that are free for all Dhillon School of Business students to develop additional knowledge and skills. We are here to help you understand the future industry that you will be working in, provide networking opportunities to meet professionals in your area of interest, and offer guided and independent experiences for learning and development. Attend the DSB Link session to learn more. Speaker: Heather Harty, Student Professional Development Coordinator
	Faculty of Arts & Science	The Student Experience	uLethbridge offers many opportunities to experience learning beyond the classroom. Join a cohort or a club. Immerse yourself in research. Participate in work-integrated learning. Hear from several of our students about what has made their experience unique. Speakers: Sara Hutchinson, Neuro & Ziara Ruchkall, PoliSci (Global Citizenship Cohort); Cassidy Campos (CompSci – co-op/research); Seraphin Yip (Combined Degree – student experience)
	Faculty of Health Sciences	Make a difference in Aboriginal Health	This session will introduce prospective students to the courses available in the Aboriginal Health Program - taken as a major or minor concentration or as a two-year post-diploma program. This major examines the factors that contribute to Indigenous health, strength, and resilience in Canada. Learn the practical skills and theoretical knowledge needed to develop and deliver a diverse range of culturally infused and supportive wellness services for Indigenous people. Speaker: Bill McKay, Coordinator
	International Recruitment	Introduction to the uLethbridge	Learn about uLethbridge programs and general admission requirements. Speaker: Jason Ng, International Recruitment Officer
11:30 - 11:45	Faculty of Fine Arts	Art Spotlight	Be inspired by art and visual culture and make your mark on the world. Work with internationally active artists and scholars as you pursue your professional and creative goals in a collaborative environment. Art professor David Miller and an art student will be sharing their experiences and practice. They will be available to answer questions immediately following.
	likaisskini & Indigenous Student Center	Mastercard Foundation	A brief history on the Mastercard foundation, their history of supporting Indigenous Student success and a brief update of initiative to come!
	Early Start Experience	Transition to University	If you are worried about the academic or social transition to university, the Early Start Experience is for you! In this enhanced version of the Liberal Education 1500 First Year Experience course, you get to develop the skills you will need to succeed in University, meet a diverse group of fellow first-year students, and earn a full 3-credit course before the Fall semester. Speaker: Shelly Wismath, Dean of School of Liberal Education
	Pronghorn Athletics & Recreation	Keeping well in YQL and at home	A presentation on staying active & well in a virtual COVID world. Speakers: Paula McDonald, Wellness Programmer Horns Recreation; Heidi Shaw, Team Lead, High Performance

11:45 - 12:00	Dhillon School of Business	Academic Advising lights the way	Did you know that you're encouraged to visit the Advising and Academic Support office frequently during your studies? Our advisors will not only empower and encourage you, they'll provide tools to help you navigate your academic, career and life journeys. Join us to find out how academic advising is lighting the way. Speakers: Mike Burland and Sydney McNally, Academic Advisors
	Faculty of Arts & Science	Professor Spotlight	Hear from three of our exceptional professors, all of who are recognized for excellence in teaching. Speakers: Dr. Shawn Bubel, Archaeology; Dr. Ute Kothe, Chemistry/Biochemistry; Dr. Harold Jansen, Political Science
	Faculty of Health Sciences	Discover Nursing at uLethbridge	Let us show you the strengths and unique qualities of our Bachelor of Nursing program. Topics will include admission requirements, program delivery, practicum experience, career prospective. Speakers: Dr. Tracy Oosterbroek, Assistant Dean of Nursing; Laura Vogelsang, Associate dean, School of Health Sciences Lethbridge College; Liz Cernigoy, NES A BN & BNAD Program Chair Lethbridge college
	Student Supports & Services	The University Library: More Than Just Books	The Library is home to an extensive digital and physical collection that can be accessed online or by request. Research support is provided in person and online. It is home to the University of Lethbridge Research Repository (OPUS), partner with the Blackfoot Digital Library, and other collections. There is also a Library Science 2000 credit course, Project Sandbox technology workshops, and more!
12:00 - 12:15	Admissions & Transfer	General Admission Requirements	Highlighting the general admissions requirements for the University of Lethbridge Undergraduate programs. Come talk with an Enrolment Specialist about what you need to study with us!
	Dhillon School of Business	Finance and you	Join us for this sample lecture by faculty member Gloria Tian. Regardless of what major you are in, you will see "you" in this introduction to finance. Let's explore! Speaker: Gloria Tian, Faculty
	Faculty of Education	Greeting & General Overview of the Faculty of Education	Faculty of Education 101: Let's Talk About Becoming a Teacher! A Conversation with Faculty, Students and Staff. If you are a Pre-Education student please take this opportunity to join us! We have an excellent panel of faculty, staff, and students to answer your questions and share some tips on "what to know" before coming into the teacher preparation program. Presenters: Danny Balderson, Assistant Dean of Student Program Services; Faculty; Staff; and Students
	Faculty of Fine Arts	Drama Spotlight	Through our rigorous program of hands-on theatre experiences, you refine your artistic techniques and develop lifelong skills such as creativity, confidence, and discipline. Courses in theatre history and theory provide a comprehensive understanding of drama's essential role in society. Drama professor Nicola Elson and a drama student will be sharing their experiences and practice. They will be available to answer questions immediately following.
	International Recruitment	Introduction to Study Permits	General overview of the study permit process. Speaker: Ravneet Panech, International Student Advisor
12:15 - 12:30	Education Abroad	Study Abroad Opportunities	Learn about all the education abroad opportunities uLethbridge has to offer. Presenter: Education Abroad Coordinator, Gizelle Tiponut.

	Faculty of Arts & Science	Research	uLethbridge is one of Canada's leading research institutions. Our research aims to better the lives of our community, our country, and the world. In this session, you will hear about some of our research and learn how to get involved. Speakers: Dr. Sergio Pellis, Neuroscience; Dr. Carol Williams, Women & Gender Studies; Dr. Bryson Brown, Philosophy
	Faculty of Education	Program Information & the Student Experience	Faculty of Education 101: Let's Talk About Becoming a Teacher! A Conversation with Faculty, Students and Staff. If you are a Pre-Education student please take this opportunity to join us! We have an excellent panel of faculty, staff, and students to answer your questions and share some tips on "what to know" before coming into the teacher preparation program. Presenters: Danny Balderson, Assistant Dean of Student Program Services; Faculty; Staff; and Students
12:30 - 12:45	Dhillon School of Business	Adding Value to your Degree with the Dhillon Business Students' Association	The Dhillon Business Students' Association (DBSA) is a student run organization dedicated to serving Dhillon students. This presentation will run through all the value that the DBSA has to offer. We look forward to seeing you there! Speakers: Gage DeSteur, Karan Dhillon and Mitchell Nixon, DSB Students
	Faculty of Fine Arts	New Media Spotlight	By combining new media production with studies of technology, art, culture, and industry, you acquire the creative, critical, and technical skills necessary to evolve with emerging technologies in a variety of professional practices. New Media professor Leanne Elias and a New Media student will be sharing their experiences and practice. They will be available to answer questions immediately following.
	Housing Services	Live in Residence!	Learn more about what it is like to live on campus.
	Students Services & Supports	Kickstarting your Career with Career Bridge - During and After Your Degree	Find out about what the Career Bridge Centre offers to help you carve out your own path of career development and preparation. Our programs (Career Coaching and Exploration, Co-operative Education, Applied Studies, the MyExperience Transcript and Professional Development Certificates) will provide you with what you need to build competitive applications, gain experience, test-run your degree, start your professional network, and find success during your degree and long after. Have you considered joining the Career Kickstart Cohort (CKC)?
12:45 - 13:00	Education Abroad	Study Abroad Opportunities	Learn about all the education abroad opportunities uLethbridge has to offer. Presenter: Education Abroad Coordinator, Gizelle Tiponut.
	Faculty of Arts & Science	The Student Experience	uLethbridge offers many opportunities to experience learning beyond the classroom. Join a cohort or a club. Immerse yourself in research. Participate in work-integrated learning. Hear from several of our students about what has made their experience unique. Speakers: Sara Hutchinson, Neuro & Ziara Ruchkall, PoliSci (Global Citizenship Cohort); Cassidy Campos (CompSci – co-op/research); Seraphin Yip (Combined Degree – student experience)
	Early Start Experience	Transition to University	If you are worried about the academic or social transition to university, the Early Start Experience is for you! In this enhanced version of the Liberal Education 1500 First Year Experience course, you get to develop the skills you will need to succeed in University, meet a diverse group of fellow first-year students, and earn a full 3-credit course before the Fall semester. Speaker: Shelly Wismath, Dean of School of Liberal Education