This is a planning guide and not a graduation check or guarantee of course offerings. You should have a program check done in your final year of studies. Students are responsible for the accuracy of their own programs. The guide should be used in conjunction with the University of Lethbridge Calendar, which is the final authority on all questions regarding program requirements and academic regulations.

Students with an academic objective of Social Work are generally admitted to a B.A. program at the University of Lethbridge with a major of the student's choice. Majors in Economics, Political Science, Psychology or Sociology may be of particular interest. The nature of the Social Work profession is such that a student should possess a strong background in the Social Sciences before application to the Faculty.

Admission to the Social Work program requires a minimum of 19 courses at the University of Lethbridge plus Social Work 201 (Introduction to Social Work), which is offered by the University of Calgary on the University of Lethbridge campus. Students must first obtain a letter of permission granting Visiting Student Authorization to the University of Calgary from the Arts and Science Student Program Services Office as well as provide an official academic transcript of all post-secondary education to enrol in this course. See the Academic Schedule in the 2022/2023 University of Lethbridge Calendar for Visiting Student Authorization application deadlines.
