Bachelor of Education (After Degree)

For some people, their passion for teaching emerges while they are pursuing other goals. If you have already completed a degree but have a strong desire to become a teacher, our After Degree Program has been designed to help you achieve that dream. The Bachelor of Education After Degree program consists of a minimum of 20 semester courses (60 credit hours), which includes Education 2500, (1 course equivalent), Professional Semester One (5 course equivalent), Professional Semester Two (5 course equivalent), Professional Semester Three (5 course equivalent) and 4 individual courses consisting of one Ed Foundation and three Ed electives.

Recommended Course Sequence

Shown below is the recommended sequence of courses for your degree. Consult timetables for course offerings, prerequisites, and corequisites before registering each term as some courses may have limited offerings (ie. once a year, alternating years, or only offered in the Fall or Winter terms). Consult with an Academic Advisor in your faculty if you wish to alter this sequence with regard to the specifically listed courses.

Note that this sequence was prepared based on course scheduling at the time of publication and may change during your studies.

First Year (Fall)

Professional Semester I (15.0 credit hours)
Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Psychology, Language in Education, Assessment and Learning, Teaching Seminar, Indigenous Education Practicum - Equivalent to 125 hours in a school

First Year (Winter)

Professional Semester II (15.0 credit hours)
